Wallonia is deservedly famous for its beers. Discover Belgium offers you an introduction to the region's unique tasting gin, ideal for cocktails.

Gin is now the second most popular spirit in Belgium. With flavours from very bitter, to spicy or sweeter, it's a drink that pleases both the palate and the eye.

A popular drink

During this event, run by Discover Belgium, your staff or business partners will discover the history of this popular drink, presented by an enthusiastic mixologist. They will then enjoy tasting the wealth of flavours offered by different types of gin, and learn to appreciate the subtle differences that make each one unique.

To round off the event, attendees will take charge of the shaker to create their own cocktail. Perhaps even a cocktail embodying the spirit of your business...

After this workshop, your employees will be ready to impress everyone when it's aperitif time!
