A UNESCO heritage site, Grand-Hornu has ideal facilities for hosting seminars, conferences and business meetings in the Mons area.

Seminar and conference spaces

Not far from Mons, Grand-Hornu is an unusual venue to play host to your seminars, conferences or other business-related events for up to 200 people.

- 6 seminar rooms in a neoclassical architectural style
- Evening events can be organised
- Priority reception services appropriate to the event

This former mining complex and associated company town, built in the 19th century, also features high-quality facilities for your business meetings.

Converted into a museum, Grand-Hornu now offers contemporary art and design exhibitions, which adds an attractive cultural aspect to your meetings.

Other features of Grand-Hornu

› Restaurant services

- Rizom restaurant: a sixth project for Michelin-starred Belgian chef Sang Hoon Degeimbre
- Cross-cultural cuisine
- Local, seasonal market produce

› Easy to reach

- 45 minutes from Brussels and Lille

› Activities at the venue

- Guided tours of the contemporary art and design exhibitions

A blend of past and future, Grand-Hornu near Mons is a fully-equipped venue for your seminars, conferences and other professional events in a highly original setting.
